

Patrick Maurice Sims

April 23, 1967 - December 1, 2021

Patrick Maurice Sims, best known by many as “P or P Milla,” passed from earth to eternal rest on the afternoon of December 1, 2021, at the age of fifty-four (54). Patrick made his transition due to complications from a liver condition he had battled quietly with courage and dignity for the past seventeen (17) years. He was born on Sunday, April 23, 1967, and was raised in Salisbury, Maryland.

Patrick lost his mother, Johnnie Mae Sims, in a tragic accident in 1968. He was raised by his maternal grandmother, Beatrice M. Sims. Patrick received his formal education in the Wicomico County public school system. At an early age, he professed his faith in Jesus Christ and was baptized at First Baptist Church in Salisbury, Maryland. Patrick worked several jobs at various companies in the local area including Campbell Soup, Lower Shore Enterprise, Perdue Farms, Spectrum and Wicomico County Board of Education. He was an avid sports fan, following his favorite teams, the Los Angeles Lakers and Dallas Cowboys.

Precious memories of Patrick’s life will be cherished by: his sister, Pamela Michelle Sims-Haygood of Norfolk, VA; his aunts, Helen Sims and Barbara Sims, both of Salisbury, MD and Bernice Black (Lester) of Fruitland, MD. For the past 12 years, Patrick spent his life with the woman he truly loved, his fiancé, Laverne Bailey of Eden, MD. Special memories will also remain with:

two wonderful friends, Ms. Katrina Purnell and Ms. Toni Matthews and their families and a special close friend and brother, William “Billy” Hearne of Fruitland, MD whose friendship with Patrick lasted over twenty-eight (28) years.

Patrick was preceded in death by his mother, Johnnie Mae Sims, grandmother, Beatrice M. Sims and grandfather John Leak.
