“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ My beloved mva friend, Paul, I was truly hurt to hear of your passing. We lost touch with each after you moved off of Rt 50. You were a one of a kind friend and co-worker. I will always remember that people thought we were husband and wife because we had the same last name. When people would come and ask for Corporal Collins, we would both greet them, and they were really confused. Paul, I will always remember you for being such a kind and loving person with that BIG grin. With deepest sympathy, Corporal Pat Collins Salisbury MVA
