

Pauline D Sells (Sullivan)

February 6, 1945 - June 29, 2018

Pauline D. Sullivan Sells was born February 6, 1945, in Dover, Delaware, to the late John and Helen Sullivan. She departed this life on June 29, 2018.

Pauline was educated at Booker T. Washington School and William Henry High School in Dover, Delaware.

Pauline enjoyed playing cards, but line dancing was her favorite. She has won awards for her moves on the floor and she was willing to teach anybody who wanted to learn the Electric Slide. You could find her at every softball game her brothers and other family members were playing in.

Pauline gave her life to Christ over 40 years ago and has been a faithful member of Holy Trinity U.A.M.C. in Dover, Delaware. She was also known as the family babysitter. Pauline kept all the kids.

She was preceded in death by her parents, John and Helen Sullivan and her siblings, Eleanor, Mildred, Helen, Anna, Clarence and Chuck.

Pauline leaves to cherish her memory, husband, Raymond; her mother, Pauline Sullivan; two sons, Gene (Monica) and Tyrone (Junina); godson, Raqwon; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; sisters, Grace Williams and Barbara Durham; brothers, John (Jackie) and Larry Sullivan; sister-in-law, Gina Sullivan, all of Dover, Delaware; a special friend, Mary; and a host of loving nieces and nephews.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
