“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort in Jesus’ promise of the earthly resurrection, for those who have fallen asleep in death (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more.- Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that GOD cares(I Peter 5:7) and will give you the strength to endure during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ To the family of Ms. Pauline Teagle,
Sorry for your loss. I know that losing a loved one brings much pain. God gives us a hope for the future that can comfort us in our grief. At Acts 24:15, we have the promise that there is going to be a resurrection of the dead. But where will these newly resurrected ones live? The scriptures say at Psalms 37:29 that these righteous ones will reside on the earth forever. So we have the hope of seeing our dead loved ones on earth again and we will never experience the pain of losing a loved one again because we will live forever. Isn't that comforting? I hope that these scriptures bring you comfort in your time of grief.
