“ My condolences to the family and friends during a most difficult time. I know your hearts are grieved over the loss of your loved one. Know that death was never a part of God's original plan for mankind. We were created to live forever in perfect health with peace and happiness. Rest assured that His plan will be fulfilled. Revelation 21:3,4 speaks of the time when all things will be made new. All the things that cause outcry and pain, along with sickness and death will be done away with forever. John 5:28, 29 gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones again. Knowing this can bring a measure of comfort and peace. John 5:25 says, " The hour is coming...when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have paid attention will live." What a wonderful time that will be. As you gain comfort from God's word, continue to support one another during this difficult time.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. It's at times like this when we realize how fragile life can be. May you find comfort and support from family and friends during this difficult time. Much comfort and a sure hope can also be found in God's Word, the Bible. For example, Jesus promises us that one day all those who have died will come back to life again (John 5:28, 29). What a glorious day that will be. God's Word also tells us that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why life will be as God meant it to be when His promise is fulfilled where He says that all the pain, suffering, and even death that mankind has experienced for thousands of years will be gone forever (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8)! The earth will be a beautiful place with beautiful people enjoying life as it was meant to be (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). When you feel up to it, I encourage you to look these scriptures up in your own Bible and experience the comfort and sure hope that only God can give (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
