“ In this difficult time may the God of all comfort and his promises of the time when there will be no more death and we can again enjoy life with those we’ve lost bring you comfort. (Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28, 29)

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but the bible gives us hope for the future. In Acts 24:15 it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, Revelation 21:4 tells us that soon death, tears, mourning and pain will be gone forever. Please look forward to that time, and may the God of all comfort bless your entire family during this time of grief.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be. So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). What a glorious and unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality because we know God cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolences; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible. My wife and I are confident you will be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

“ To the family of Peggy Harmon Scarborough:
We were saddend to hear of the passing of Peggy. Growing up together in Pocomoke and going to the same schools it's difficult to hear of the passing of a friend, classmate or an associate. Mr. Willie, Christine and the rest of the family just know you are in our prayers. If there is anything the Jones family can do, please don't hesitate to contact any of us. May God bless you all.

“ I am sorry to hear of the lost of your loved one. May the promises of God at Isa 25:8, "he will swallow up death forever" and Acts 24: 15, "there will be a resurrection" give you peace, comfort and hope. May you get a copy of booklet "When Someone you Love Dies," (jw.org), it really was helpful during my time of loss. Again, my deepest sympathy.

“ I send my condolences in the lost of your loved one. There may be no words to truly express sympathy for your sorrow. I pray that you will take some comfort in the real hope that the Bible gives of being reunited again with your loved one.

In the Bible at John 5:28, 29 it reads, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Yes, the Bible promises that your loved one will come back to life again in the resurrection. (Acts 24:15) According to the Bible, soon death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3, 4)

Sincerely,

Sandy Ellis
