PETER'S JOURNEY

Peter Reynold Battle, Sr., a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, departed his life on earth at the age of sixty-two (62) on Monday, August 7, 2023. Peter, also known as Pete, was born on May 23, 1961 in Hampton, Virginia to Carolyn Battle Hull and the late Benjamin Franklin.

Peter attended James M. Bennett High School in Salisbury, Maryland. After high school, he worked on various jobs before he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. There he completed 5 years of service and received his high school diploma. He then became ill and was in various nursing homes.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Carolyn Hull and stepfather, Adolph Hull who raised him as his own since the age of one; two daughters, Jasmin West (Mardel) of Chesapeake Beach, Maryland and Dr. Shawna Battle of Dallas, Texas; three sons, Peter Battle, Jr., Brandon Battle and Jerimiah Battle, all of Salisbury, Maryland; one step daughter, DeShirl Whitney of Salisbury, Maryland; two sisters, Sheryl Waters and Natalia Miller (Clarence), both of Salisbury, Maryland; ten grandchildren; one god daughter, Shanita Sheppard and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

He was preceded in death by his biological father, Benjamin Franklin, maternal and paternal grandparents, one nephew, two great nephews and his longtime friend, Reverend Pierre Parsons.

Pete I'm sitting here remembering our last conversation! This is unbelievable. Although in the past we went through, I'm glad we managed to grow up and became friends this past couple of years. I'm truly gonna miss your witty, funny, and crazy convos. I will definitely see you through our young men. Bunn
