September 16, 1968 - January 5, 2019

Obituary

Phillip Ronald Santiago, a former resident of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, died in the comfort of his home in Salisbury, Maryland. On Saturday, January 5, 2019, at the age of fifty (50), Phillip peacefully passed away from natural causes.

Affectionately known as Ronnie/Dino, he was many things in his lifetime as he was always re-inventing himself. He was very imaginative, artistic and so many of his endeavors had flair. In his youth he was an avid break dancer and had his fifteen (15) minutes of fame on Dance Fever. He was a Jewelry Designer for a Mom and Pop store in Philadelphia, but most importantly, he was a dreamer and an entrepreneur who owned a recording studio, a bar and an apartment building. He loved to travel and did so as often as he could. He may have lived a short life, but it was a full life, filled with dreams and adventures.

He is survived by: his mother, Aida Santiago; his children, Raynaldo Santiago, Ciara Santiago, Phillipe Santiago, Nydia Deleo and Damien Deleo; his siblings, Nelly Rodriguez, Emmy Rodriguez and Pablo Santiago; his nephews, Joel Rodriguez, Alex Aguayo, and Mikal Vegas and his grandson, Liam Santiago.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I work at Comcast here in Salisbury Maryland. I met Phil when he came in a couple of years ago and I'll never forget our first conversation. That day started a respect for each other to the point where he would only deal with me when he made his cable payment. Didn't matter how long the line was, he waited patiently. He was such a sweet guy. He was very down to earth and I'm sure his family is hurting for this loss. It really hurt my heart when I heard this news. I'm sorry I couldn't be there for your service bro. My job doesn't allow us to get off for funerals unless it's immediate family unfortunately. Nothing but love and respect for you. My condolences to the family for this. To his mother, thanks for sharing your son with me at Comcast. Respect...

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Phillip. Please note the words of 2Corinthians 1:3, 4: "Praised be ..... the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God." God will comfort and strengthen you during this time of grief to the extent that you will be able to offer comfort to others facing similar trials.
