

Phyllis Predeoux

June 11, 1957 - March 8, 2019

Obituary

On Friday March 8, 2019, while surrounded by her family, Phyllis Lorraine Lucas Predeoux was called from Earth to Glory. Born on June 11, 1957 to the late Dorothy and Ernest Lucas, and George Godwin, Phyllis was raised in Whitesville, Virginia.

In adulthood, she moved to Pocomoke City, Maryland, where she remained until her passing. Phyllis was reared in a Christian home and attended Adams United Methodist Church. Later in life, she was ordained as an Evangelist of the Gospel, under the leadership of New Bethel Ministries. She shared her love of God and her testimony of how He had been faithful and brought her through many of life's challenges. One of her favorite sayings was, "Stay Strong, Survivor."

Phyllis worked for many years at Hudson Foods in Berlin, Maryland as well as a cook at Hartley Hall in Pocomoke. She also was employed for many years by the Gladding and Morrison families in Pocomoke. When she was no longer able to work, she spent her time caring for her grandchildren, especially her "Junie." Phyllis was an excellent cook and enjoyed making meals for her family. She loved her family dearly and was proud to be able to see her grandson, Tre, graduate from Marine Bootcamp and her great nephew play football at Duke University.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Ernestine Lucas, brothers, George Godwin, Sr. and Larry Godwin, Sr. and a granddaughter, Solei Watson.

She leaves to rejoice in her homecoming: her husband, Rynell Predoux; daughters, Yomika (Artie) of Virginia, Riba (Lydale) of Pocomoke and Toshiba of Princess Anne, MD; stepson, Danny Predeoux; a sister, Wanda White; sister, Diane Downing; brother, Floyd Davis; grandchildren, Richard, Nikiera, LeAzia, Zhe'el, Raquel, Kamau, Gavin and Lydale, Jr.; bonus grandchild, Lamiya Watson; aunt, Audrey Griffith and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. Special thanks goes out to her friend, Patricia Fletcher, for all the care and help she provided.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. I sincerely express my deepest sympathy. \t

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God\u2019s only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It\u2019s a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Dear Predeoux family, I wish that we didn't ever have to say goodbye to those we love. It can take quite some time for our hearts to stop hurting because we miss them so much. What we do have are special memories, remembered smiles, laughter and love to help us when we are feeling sad. Please keep in mind that God loves you very much and is a source of comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4, Psalms 55:22) and strength (Isaiah 41:10,13) during this difficult time. He is always willing to listen when you need to talk to Him about your feelings. So don't be afraid to openly express yourself to our Heavenly Father (Psalms 145:18 , Psalms 65:2). There are so many people who love you and have loving and encouraging expressions to share with you. I hope their words as well as the words from God's word the Bible will help you through the coming days. I am so very sorry for your loss.
