

Phyllis Bernice Randolph

April 22, 1948 - October 24, 2021

Phyllis B. Randolph was born on Thursday, April 22, 1948, in Lewes, Delaware, to Gladys and Howard Richards. Phyllis departed this life on Sunday, October 24, 2021, in Seaford, Delaware. She was raised in Seaford, Delaware, and moved to Camden, New Jersey, then subsequently back to her hometown where she enjoyed life with her family and friends.

Phyllis attended Rehoboth Temple of Praise Church in Laurel, Delaware, “where we just don’t have church, we have a worship experience”.

Phyllis loved to listen to Kirk Franklin radio station on IHeart radio, and doing her “shoulder dance” on her favorite songs.

Phyllis was loving, kind, and a funny person. Her favorite response to a question was “You know Dat”.

Her favorite games to play were Bingo, Casino, and playing cards, (Spades to be exact). Her favorite TV shows were Chicago PD, Swat and The Price is Right. She enjoyed watching movies over and over and over again (lol). Her smile was inviting and her laugh was contagious.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents, Gladys and Howard Richards; three uncles and one aunt.

Phyllis is survived by five children, Veronica Randolph Shoultz of Clementon, NJ; Darnell Randolph (TeeKim) of Plainfield, NJ; Tanya Phillips (Elton) of Bridgeville, DE; Rose Randolph of Seaford, DE and Rochelle Collins (Clarence) of Seaford, DE; 13 grandchildren, Anthony Randolph, Cherie Leary (Burrell), Veronica Randolph, Devon Randolph, Brandon Brooks, Christian Collins, Donshea Collins, Collyn Collins, Crystal Randolph, Tamir Shoultz, Kevone Bunting, Irene Randolph and Darnell Randolph, Jr.; 14 great grandchildren; two brothers, James Deshields (Linda) of Dover, DE and Howard Richards (Terry) of Norfolk, VA; one special sister, Carol Atkins of Atlanta, GA; longtime companion and friend, Dan Irving; and a host of cousins, family and friends.
