“ Glover Family, Extending my deepest sympathy to a wonderful person. I grew up with Preston in high school, and he was a funny person to be around. Keep your faith in God and know Preston is an Angel in Heaven. I will continue to pray for his family and children. Always remember, the happy days spent with him it will fill your hearts. God Bless!

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ A person whom I known for over 20+years is gone far to soon. I was glad to know Preston and to be a good friend. We played Junior High Football together as well as High School. We all have lost someone special and Preston was one of those that we lost. Life carry us in different directions we sometime lose communication down the line. I'm glad I had a chance to talk to him last year before this difficult time. Family stay strong and look to Jesus for the strength that you will need to get you through this tough time. God Bless

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this it is so important to have the support and encouragement from family and friends. Please let me share with you the wonderful hope and comfort found in God's Word, the Bible. For example, Jesus said that those who have died will hear his voice one day and come back to life again (John 5:28, 29). God, who cannot lie (Titus 1:2) also tells us that along with Jesus resurrecting people, all the pain, suffering, and even death would be done away with forever (Revelation 21:3-5). God also says that the earth will one day be filled with the knowledge of God (Isaiah 11:6-9). That means that nothing and no one who causes pain or suffering will exist, only those who love and God and his neighbor (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). Until that time may we continue to read and apply God's Word in our life as we look forward to the glorious day ahead (Psalm 1:1-3; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
