

Priscilla Molock

September 10, 1947 - March 12, 2017

Priscilla Jean Brown Bivens Molock, also known as “Scilla”, made the final journey of her life on March 12, 2017 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland at the age of sixty-nine (69). Born on September 10, 1947 at Peninsula General Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland, she was the daughter of the late Louis C. Brown and Florence E. Shiles C. Brown of Quantico, Maryland.

Priscilla attended elementary school in Quantico, Maryland. She graduated from Salisbury High School in 1965 and later attended Wor-Wic Community College in Salisbury, Maryland, where she received her Associates degree in Accounting.

Priscilla was employed at Lady Manhattan Shirt Factory, Hymens Electronics and First Shore Federal Bank, where she worked for a brief time in the mortgage department. Although she liked the position, she longed to do what she loved best, handling money. Believing “All Things Are Possible”, “Scilla” became a bank teller, loving everyone and vice-versa.

She was a faithful member of St. James Free Methodist Church in Head of Creek, MD, where she served as a trustee, sang on the choir and was a member of the Zionettes. Some of her favorite hobbies were entertaining, cleaning and cooking, making a “mean” potato salad that no one could resist, not even her friends from Baltimore. Scilla knew she was truly blessed!

She was married to the late Clarence Bivens of Deal Island, Maryland and had three children from that union: Clarence, Jr., Shyrees and Brian Bivens, all of Salisbury, Maryland.

Priscilla married the classic man of her dreams, Benjamin F. Molock, on December 27, 1986, and they were married for 31 blissful and happy years. Ben made sure Scilla never wanted for anything. She loved to travel, they visited the Poconos, Myrtle Beach, Virginia Beach, Las Vegas, Georgia, Tennessee, San Diego and even went on a Jamaican Cruise with family, friends or sometimes it was just the two of them. Scilla loved and lived life to the fullest.

Priscilla leaves to cherish her memories: her beloved husband, Benjamin F. Molock; two daughters, Shyrees Bivens and Kim (Lankford) Molock of Salisbury, MD; two sons, Clarence, Jr. and Brian Bivens; one adopted daughter, Lisa (David) Williams of Salisbury, MD; one god daughter, Jairae Williams of Princess Anne, MD; twenty grandchildren; thirty-two great grandchildren; eleven great great grandchildren; two sisters, Olivia Wright of Jesterville, MD and Ruth Thompson of Baltimore, MD; 3 brothers, Louis E. Brown and Edward (Tee) Brown of Salisbury, MD and Lawrence Brown of Baltimore, MD; three aunts, Queen, Girlie and Ayreanna Shiles; one devoted sister-in-law, Beverly Davis of Jesterville, MD; three sisters-in-law, Patsy (George) Brown, Ruth (Freddie) Stanley and Brenda (Richard) Molock; one brother-in-law, Keith (Madgeline) Molock; one devoted brother-in-law, Greg Thompson of Durham, NC and a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her wonderful parents, Louis and Florence Brown; her first husband, Clarence Bivens; one brother, Leonard Brown; one daughter, Audrea Molock Cornish; one grandchild and one great grandchild.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Priscilla Molock, please visit our
Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. Also, we do have a chance to see our loved ones again during the resurrection of the dead. (Acts 24:15) Please look forward to that time and may the God of all comfort give your family peace at this time.

Doretha Sampson - March 21, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LM

“ To the Family and friends of Priscilla...

I am so sorry for your loss. Just know that God still sits high and looks low, and He has you in His arms. You are in my prayers and may God give you strength as you go through this valley.

Lettie Mitchell-Anderson - March 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM

AF

“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

A Friend - March 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Kim & Family,
I am very sorry for your loss. Holding your family close in prayer.

Moira Biddle

Moira Biddle - March 14, 2017 at 12:00 AM