“ I grew up with Nina Jean. She was always a little different, but I loved visiting the family. Rest in the arms of Jesus for your work is done. Love to the family and I'll be praying for you. To be absent from the body is to in the presence of the Lord.

“ My beautiful mother and matriarch of our family, Prophetess Nina Jean Jackson, transitioned into the arms of Jesus on Tuesday, 8/24/21 at 8:30 p.m. Was I ready? No. But did I know this day would come soon? Yes.

My mom, a faithful soldier in the army of the Lord, walked with a prophetic mantle that transformed lives. Ministering angels accompanied her ministry! Miracles, signs and wonders always followed her. The prophetic mantle that I carry comes from her lineage. She was one of the most accurate prophets you could ever encounter in life.

My love for God and His ministry come from watching and gleaning from her for years. It was an honor to travel with her and see the hand of God move in her life and so many others. I will forever hold dear the memories that we shared. She wasn't just my mom; she was my first spiritual mentor. Am I hurting? Absolutely. I weep and my heart is sad because she is no longer with us. However, I am at peace. I cherished her and gave her flowers while she was here. I took care of her and I honored her.

Mommy, I know you're enjoying heaven, your forever home! Your legacy will live on through me. Until we meet again, you will forever be in my heart. I love you dearly. #yourlegacy ATS
