“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).*

“ You have my sincere condolences for the passing of your love one, who I know will be missed by family and friends. I pray you will find peace and comfort in Jesus' promise of the earthly resurrection, when with the help of God's holy spirit he will restore those who have fallen asleep in death back to life with the prospect of living forever on the paradise earth, the way God intended from the beginning.-Acts 24:15; Luke 23:43. Until then may Jehovah continue to comfort and bless the Purnell Family.-Isaiah 66:13.

“ Somehow, at this time, "words" just don't seem enough to comfort. The loss of Quincy, a love one, is devastating. However, may God, the Father, comfort you and the family during this difficult time. Love you much and God Bless you.
