“ The faithful man Job asked: "If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands." Job 14:14 When Job asked that question, he knew the answer. He confirmed his expectation of a resurrection when he said God would call him and he would answer. He knew this because God has said: "There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous." John 5:28,29. This gives hope that Rainelle will be reunited with her loved ones right here on earth. Jesus promised: "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him on the last day." John 6:29 May these promises bring you comfort as you contemplate being reunited with Rainelle right here on earth under perfect conditions. This is because God has promised: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. And the one seated on the throne said : "Look! I am making all things new." Also he says: "Write, for these words are faithful and true." Revelation 21:4,5
