RANDOLPH'S JOURNEY

Randolph Giddens, affectionately known as “Randy” or “Koon”, was born on February 16, 1961 to the late James “Pete” Holmes and Carrie Collins. Randy transitioned from this Earth to Heaven on Sunday, October 22, 2023 at Riverside Shore Memorial Hospital in Onancock, Virginia.

Randy was educated in the Accomack County Public Schools. On November 14, 1987, Randy and Catherine Kellam-Giddens became husband and wife. This union was blessed with a daughter, Tamekia Giddens-Jonnet. Randy worked in the poultry industry. He enjoyed cooking, housework, the outdoors and being sociable. He was kind-hearted and loved helping others. Randy loved spending time with his family and friends.

Randy leaves to cherish loving memories: his wife, Catherine Kellam-Giddens of Painter, Virginia; his daughter, Tamekia Giddens-Jonnet and her husband Christopher Jonnet of Portsmouth, Virginia; two grandsons, Jayden and Jordan, both of Portsmouth, Virginia; a brother, Jerry Collins of Parksley, Virginia; four sisters, Delois Faulcon of Salisbury, Maryland, Josephine Thomas of Dover, Delaware, Priscilla Holmes of Frankford, Delaware and Peggy Handy of Nelsonia, Virginia; three sisters-in-law, Hilda Holmes of Salisbury, Maryland, Corrine Collins of Nassawadox, Virginia and Irene Kellam of Dover, Delaware; eight brothers-in-law, Royce Handy of Nelsonia, Virginia, Robert Faulcon, Jr., of Salisbury, Maryland, James and Ricky Kellam, both of Painter, Virginia, Johnny and Albert Kellam, both of Exmore, Virginia, Clarence Kellam of Nassawadox, Virginia and Edward Kellam of Temperanceville, Virginia; two special friends, Gwen and Ralph Mears and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Randy was preceded in death by his parents, James "Pete" Holmes and Carrie Collins, a sister, Barbara "Donna" Moore and brothers, Raymond Giddens, Charles Holmes, Norman Holmes and Larry Holmes.
