

Randolph O. Sisco

November 19, 1929 - September 1, 2014

Odell Randolph Sisco, known as “Cray”, was born in Rock Hall, Maryland on November 11, 1929. Odell peacefully passed away on the morning of September 1, 2014 at a Hospice Nursing facility in Queen Annes County, Maryland. He was blessed during his 84 years on this earth. He graduated from Garnett High School. He proudly served in the U.S. Army and the Korean War.

He was spiritually connected through and through, always lending a helping hand with information about family births and those who passed on. He was also heavily involved in making sure the family reunions were a success year after year. He loved church and oystering, but most of all he loved sports. He was a member of the Rock Hall Tigers Negro Baseball League. He possessed great strengths and an enduring smile and a sense of humor.

Odell is survived by his two sons, Arnold Jerome Sisco of Newark, DE and Ronald Tyrone Sisco of Chestertown, MD; one granddaughter, Anya Sisco Schanez; two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mary Louise Sisco of Newark, DE and one brother, Clarence Lycurtis Sisco of Capitol Heights, MD.
