

Raymond Nutt

February 13, 1937 - October 31, 2013

Raymond Edgar Nutt, Jr., passed away Thursday, October 31, 2013, surrounded by his loved ones.

He was born in Marydel, DE, on February 13, 1937, son of the late Raymond E. Sr., and Elsie Mae Nutt.

Mr. Nutt attended Dover High School. He served in the United States Marine Corps. He worked for several construction companies, prior to retiring from the Maintenance Shop at Delaware State University. He enjoyed working in his wood-work shop, with tools that had been used by his grandfather, and Blue Grass music; playing many musical instruments. He had two very special friends (father and son), Ralph and Larry Davidson; with whom he and his late wife played the game, "Greedy", every Saturday night for about fifteen years. Another dear friend was Mach Absher, with whom they enjoyed music; even once going to Nashville, TN to play at the local establishments.

Mr. Nutt was predeceased by his wife, Sarah Lane, on January 9, 2008, his parents, several aunts and uncles, and a grandson.

Mr. Nutt is survived by four daughters, his caretakers Wanda Kazlauskas and her husband Chuck of Camden, DE; Beth Capparella of Reading, PA; Peggy Easter of Sandtown, MD and Donna Nutt of Utah; a host of grandchildren; one great grandchild; his step-daughter, Brenda Gail Weitzel of Panasis, TX; and a sister and brother-in-law, Margaret and William Moor of Dover, DE; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ Wanda,
Though we never got the opportunity to meet face to face, I wanted to tell you again what a joy your father was to visit. I always looked forward to my visits with him, because I always knew there would be a smile and a story/joke waiting for me. He will be missed dearly!
Thank you so much for allowing us to be a part of his life and care for the past ten months.
