“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. As you comfort and support one another during this difficult time (Proverbs 17:17), how we all value the preciousness of life that comes for Almighty God (Psalm 36:9). When things like this happen we also realize how fragile life can be (James 4:14). That is why the inspired Word of God helps and comforts us through the grieving process (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). It tells us how Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus wants us to have complete faith in this promise (John 11:25; 3:16). When he performs this miracle all the living will experience something that mankind has not seen for thousands of years, namely the removal forever of all the pain, suffering, and death humans have endured till this time (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). What a future and hope ahead for obedient mankind (Jeremiah 29:11)! God wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). Until then may we remember Jesus words in Matthew 24:13: "he that has endured to the end will be saved". Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted by the hope that lies ahead (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.
