

Rebecca Gladys Holland

July 31, 1929 - September 2, 2017

Rebecca Gladys Holland, 88, of Georgetown, Delaware, was born to the late Amos Scarborough and Mable Ames in Painter, Virginia on July 31, 1929. She made her transition to be with the Lord, on Saturday, September 2, 2017, at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital in Seaford, DE. She was married to the love of her life, the late Levin Owens Holland for 66 years.

Rebecca dedicated her heart to the Lord at an early age and served diligently in various areas of several churches, often called “Mother of the Church” or Mom Holland. She joined New Beginnings in Salisbury under the leadership of Bishop Daryl Butts and later attended Dagsboro Church of God in Dagsboro, DE under the leadership of Pastor Alan & Janis Greijack.

Rebecca was a kind, loving and giving mother who loved her children. For many years she was a foster mother. She opened her home not only to foster children, but to anyone who needed help or a place to stay.

For many years she worked with her husband at the Jefferson Apartments in Lewes, DE as residential managers. Most recently she volunteered at the Christian storehouse in Millsboro, DE, sorting clothes. This was a job she truly loved. Her favorite hobby was having yard sales. She was very active and always busy.

Rebecca was preceded in death by her parents Amos Scarborough and Mable Ames; her son Charles Edward Holland; daughters-in-law Diane Holland and Wanda Holland and a grand-daughter Takisha Holland-Hopkins; Six brothers Alfred, Harry, Charles and Garland Sample, Henry Scarborough and William Scarborough; two sisters Susie Jubilee and Bertha Scarborough.

She leaves to mourn four sons Levin Holland, Jr., North Carolina, Fulton (Ida) Holland, Bishopville, MD, Russell (Nicole) Holland, Selbyville, DE, Ward (Shirley) Holland, Georgetown, DE; Two daughters, Norma Deal, Clarksville, Tennessee and Diane (Raymond) Smith, Salisbury, MD; stepdaughter, Wanda White, Frankford, DE; and a host of grandchildren, great-grand-children, nieces and nephews.
