“ It saddens me to hear of the loss of someone so dear to us as our sister in Christ Jesus. Rev. Recie Marshall was very committed to her “calling” from God Jehovah. She has labored and kept her Faith to the end. May Rev. Recie with her beautiful Spirit now rest from her Mission for God. You will be missed. Rest now till Jesus Christ returns. “Let not your hearts be troubled.”

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God's promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God “will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to the family. I hope that you will be able to find strength in God's promise at (Revelation 21: 4) that soon he will wipe out every tear from the eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. You and the family of Recie Lee Marshall (Allen) are in my prayers.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
