

Reese Braxton Harmon Jr.

June 3, 1953 - November 23, 2021

Reese Braxton Harmon, Jr., passed away peacefully, November 23, 2021, at PAM Rehabilitation Center in Dover, Delaware, at the age of 68.

Reese was born June 3, 1953, to the late Reese “Braxton” Harmon, Sr., and Margaret Louise Wright.

Reese worked various jobs for companies and private jobs for numerous people in the neighborhood. If you had anything that had to be fixed, Reese could do it or tell you how to do it. Better yet, he would have said how he could have done it better than you. He was a real jack of all trades.

Reese enjoyed his morning outing to McDonald’s and coffee from Royal Farms. He was a great collector of junk. Reese was hard-headed and stubborn but had a caring heart and would help anyone.

His love for his community was shown to him during his last days. Many people visited, called, and donated monetary gifts to show the love and respect they had for him.

Reese is survived by his neighbors, Dalene Brandner, who is also his sister; nieces, Farrah Stigall (Ricky) and Amanda Norwood; special friends, June Burton and Liz Boone; and a host of other brothers and sisters, special cousins and friends.

“ I am so sorry that Reese became sick and passed away so suddenly. He was a wonderful guy who was misunderstood by many. Those of us who have spent time with him understood that. As a good friend put it --no matter how long and how good the book, the last chapter is always sad. Reese you will be missed. Best regards to his family and friends.
