“ To the family of Regina Ayres; I wish to express my sincere condolences for the tragic loss of Regina, and at such a young age. There are not many words that will bring comfort during a time like this; so I leave the promise found at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 - that "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials", will be with you during this most difficult and heart wrenching time. You will not be alone, but will have the help and comfort of our heavenly father to carry you through.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of the tragedy that took place not far from where I live.. I did not learn about this incident until I was in Church on Sunday morning hearing it and then later on Monday finding out just who the family was. I do not know the family that was involved but my heart truly goes out to the family and friends who have lost some treasures. Treasures because that is what is stored in heaven.. God is in control of all things and although one may not understand it now, we will one day. I am Praying for all the friends, families and loved ones who were tremendously touched by this. May God continue to bless each and every one of you and may you all find peace in allowing God to be your comforter in all things. Blessings
