“ To the family,
I am so sorry for your lost, Rena was my cousin. The last time i saw Rena was over in seaford. And the time she was over in seaford to the hospital. She was in the ICU. My mother and I, sat with her and I comb her hair. We prayed with her and sung to her. And God bless her to come out of the hospital. I would just like to say to her husband and children. That the Lord knows best. And he do not make mistakes. Rena was tired. She fought a good fight. The battle is over. She has no more pain and she is not suffering now. So please remember the good times that you shared with her. And she will forever live in your hearts. May the Lord be with you all and keep you. And please seek him more now than you ever. He will be their to comfort you. Just like the footprints in the sand. God bless you.
