

Rena Luzetta Payne

September 8, 1950 - September 14, 2012

Rena Luzetta Harmon Payne, of Pocomoke City, Maryland went home with the Lord on September 14, 2012. Born in Hallwood, Virginia, to the late Juanita and Upshur Harmon.

Luzetta as we called her was educated in the Worcester County School System. She graduated from Worcester Jr. and Sr. High School in 1969. After graduating, she moved to Wilmington, Delaware and there she began to work at Hercules as a food consultant for twenty years, until her health began to fail.

Luzetta was always smiling with a loving heart, never complained and lifted the spirits of others while confined to a wheelchair. Vet, sister and caregiver said their love began to grow as she began to care for her. We had beautiful times, lots of laughs, and the most precious was visits from family and friends. We thank God for blessing her with the opportunity to be with her grandchild and to love her dearly.

When the “Class of 69” visited she always had a smile on her face and would say I’m fine, and how are you?

She leaves to cherish her fond memory: one son– Stanley Delano Lum, one grandchild Samyah Darby; two sisters Lovetta Winn, of Pocomoke City, Maryland, and Eva Johnson of Ohio; one brother Garland Hinman of Temperanceville, Virginia; two god sisters-Reverend Ruby C. Gilliam (Grant) of Baltimore, Maryland and Eaunteance Michelle Crippen of Salisbury, Maryland; three aunts Enid Thompson of Baltimore, Maryland, Christine Mapp of Compton Georgia , Mabel Hyman of Salisbury, Maryland; five uncles, Walter Jackson of New York, William Jackson of North Carolina, David Jackson of California, Charles Hyman of Florida, and the late Eddie Jackson; one niece Alexis Nicole Winn and Pop Pop Mr. Alexander Cropper of PA, and a host of nieces, nephews cousins and loving friends.

Sorrowfully & Loving

Submitted by The Family