“ Erren - Its been almost a year from that fateful day and I feel like you and I will always have something in common. I was unable to attend Rhonda's funeral because my mom had slipped into a coma, and also passed two days later on February 7th. I am sure they met at orientation in heaven and are standing together with patient hope in seeing us again. All we can do is to live a life that would make them proud, in service to others and with a purpose of making the world around us a better place. Thinking of you and remembering your momma. Love Liz

“ To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

“ To Erren and all of Rhonda's family and friends: How lucky I was to have crossed paths with Rhonda Reid. She worked with me at JSD and I don't think a day went by that she didn't make me laugh. She was a strong woman which I admired so and always worked hard and tried to do the right thing. She loved Erren with all of her heart and was so proud of the man he has become. She was a treasured friend and I will miss her. My sympathies to all that loved her as I did.

TO RHONDA - try not to pick on Dewey too much from your current geographical location lol. Give my dad my love. Will miss you girl and look forward to seeing you again someday, hopefully not too soon - hope you understand. :)

“ My condolences go out to the family of Ms Rhonda Reid. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ I am so sad Reezy. My friend left me and I hope you know how much I love and admired you! Your strength and character were everything I could have dreamed of being. You are more than my friend you are my sister! I love you more than you could ever imagine! I will see you in Heaven we can be room mates. Love you BJ
