Obituary

Richard Nathaniel Armstrong, Jr., beloved son of Nika Ayres and Richard Armstrong, Sr. was born on February 9, 1995 in Salisbury, Maryland. He gained his wings on August 14, 2020.

Richard was lovingly known as Juice, RJ and Sgood by his family, friends and other loved ones. He received his formal education in the public schools of Worcester County, and was a graduate of Snow Hill High School Class of 2013. He had several jobs. Richard gave his life to Christ at an early age at Collins Temple AME Church in Snow Hill, Maryland.

Juice was the life of the party. He loved to dance, listen to music, ride dirt bikes and four wheelers, play sports and most of all, he loved to be with his family and friends. Juice was an avid football fan. He started out playing football for the Salvation Army at the tender age of seven (7) where he continuously played. All throughout his high school years, he played for the Snow Hill Eagles.

In addition to his parents, he leaves to cherish precious memories: one daughter, Carrington Rose Collins of Pocomoke, Maryland; two sisters, Cherish Osborne of Salisbury, Maryland and Taylor Armstrong of Snow Hill,

Maryland; one brother, Shaun Richardson of Laurel, Maryland; one niece, Jai'Anah Armstrong of Laurel, Delaware; two nephews, Jayce'eon Johnson of Snow Hill, Maryland and Kah'muree Armstrong of Laurel, Delaware; two maternal grandparents, Irene Colon of Snow Hill, Maryland and Alfred Ayres of New Castle, Delaware; a paternal grandmother, Evelyn Waters of New Church, Virginia; a special cousin who acted as an uncle, Ty Spence of Snow Hill, Maryland; a special friend, Kristi Johnson of Snow Hill, Maryland and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Richard was preceded in death by a brother, Rodnell Copes, Jr., a sister, Jessica Harrison, two grandfathers, Felix Colon and Robert Waters, Sr., two great grandmothers, Esther Spence and Estella Schoolfield and one cousin, Brandon Bibbins.

LOVINGLY SUBMITTED,

“ I'm truly gonna miss you "juice". I would either see you or hear you every single day. I'd put the window up and yell out or go out on the porch, you would always yell back in a very respectful way. I've known you from a young child until. I can still hear your voice in my mind. The day you left this earth , you and a friend of yours was outside on the bike, I hollered" hey juice, what I tell you, he smiled and goodmorning Miss Amanda, I'm sorry,I'm getting ready to leave, I said ok be careful". I dont deal with a lot of the young ones because they are so disrespectful, one thing I can say is that he was a very well raised and mannerly young man, that would do anything he could to help anyone. One day my kids, his girlfriend and I were out in the yard and a car came up, he had the biggest smile on his face,he said yall wanna see my baby. He was so happy to see her, he was gonna be a wonderful father. IM GONNA MISS YOU.Christi,Nikka,Taylor,Cherish,Irene and Richard Sr., if there's anything that I can do, I will do my best to fulfill whatever you ask of me. Love you all.
