

Richard C. Brown

June 17, 1930 - April 23, 2015

Richard Cornelius Brown of Felton, Delaware entered into eternal rest on Thursday, April 23, 2015 at his home, less than two months shy of his 85th birthday. Richard was the only child born to the late Katie Brown Henry and John Brown on June 17, 1930 in Goldsboro, MD.

He grew up in the Goldsboro, MD area, receiving his primary education in the Caroline County school system. He served four years in the United States Army and was honorably discharged. Richard's passion was auto body repairs. He worked at various auto body shops throughout the Northeastern corridor, mastering the craft and eventually opened up his own business.

Richard was a knowledgeable modern day "Jack of all trades" with a passion for fishing, "recycling", gardening and carpentry, eventually building his own home. He was an outdoorsman who always found a way to keep himself busy until his health failed.

Throughout his lifetime various children, families (Amish) and sometimes perfect strangers were drawn to Richard's genuine kindness and love for people. He enjoyed studying God's word with his Jehovah Witness family and was very well versed in God's desire for our lives. He was a no frills man who felt it not robbery to do whatever he could to help somebody and he will truly be missed.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I recently loss my sister. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief. Richard is now resting. The bible tells us that in the near future Almighty God is going to remove sickness, death and pain. (Revelation 21:3&4)Richard, being a student of the bible knew and looked forward to that time. He also knew of the resurrection hope spoken of in John 5:28&29. So, we can all look forward to seeing Richard again in the near future. May your family be comforted and blessed at this time.
