“ Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glint on snow. I am the sunlight on unripened grain. I am the gentle Autumns rain. When you awaken in the mornings hush. I am the swift uplifting rush. Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there. I did not die.

“ Dad Thank you for loving me and being my dad ,you came into my life when I was 5 and you showed me what a dad should be,you taught me to be responsible and respectful. We had our very special memories between a daughter and a father. I will never forget them. I will always treasure them. I will miss you dearly but you will stay alive in my heart. You are up there with my Debbie, Grandma, Grandpa and your brothers. They get you now, and we will dearly miss you here. I know life was so tough on you the last few years, but I know you're at peace now. Please look in on me from time to time . Love you Donna
