

Richard Otis White Jr.

August 16, 1951 - June 26, 2023

The Life

First and foremost, Richard Otis White was a precious son from God, given to the late Otis and the late Susie White on Thursday, August 16, 1951, in Salisbury Maryland. Richard was a loving, caring, devoted son, husband, father, grandson, brother, uncle, and person. God called and Richard looked up and went to Him on Monday, June 26, 2023 to be with the Heavenly Father, our Lord and Savior. He will join his mother, father and sister; Carvis Jones Drummond, in his Heavenly home.

Richard is survived by his soul mate and wife, Valarie (Warrington) White of forty-eight years (who never left his side). She loved and cared for him with much devotion and affection. Richard and Valarie made their home in Richmond, Virginia until his death. He is survived by two children; one son, Deidrik White of Richmond, Virginia and one daughter, Angela (Marcus) King of Salisbury, Maryland. God blessed them with five grandchildren... Amir White, D'Andre Leggett, Shawnequa King, Bryce King, and Azi'yah King. He also leaves one sister, Helen (John); and six brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Richard was raised in Salisbury, Maryland where he was educated in Salisbury Elementary and Wicomico Junior High School. He received his GED and continued education in the United States Army. Rich (as he was called by Valerie) was educated in ordinance, communication, and electronics by the Army. After separation from the US Army, Richard received certification as a nursing assistant with medication capability. Out of all the training, Rich was most happy doing landscaping. He worked as a supervisor at Parson's Professional Grounds Maintenance of Salisbury, Maryland. In 2019, Rich retired from the laundry facility at McGuire Veterans Hospital in Richmond, Virginia.
