

Ricky N. Elder Sr.

July 6, 1957 - December 12, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

FB

“ Here I am again, having another bad moment. Wishing I had my best friend to give me some words of wisdom. Dad, I miss more than you could ever imagine ! I sometimes feel like my days are getting better, then I attempt to pick up the phone and FaceTime with you. It still hits like a ton of bricks and feels so unreal. I wish heaven had a phone so, I could at least call you and ask how you\u2019re doing. I wish I was able to make visits to see you up there. I just needed to vent and let you know your still and always will be my #1 ! Pop, people used to call me the, \u201cPrincess\u201d because I never cried over anything. Now that I no longer have you, I can\u2019t stop crying. I here everyone when they say I have you in spirit but, that\u2019s not the same. \ud83d\ude2d \ud83d\ude2d \ud83d\ude2d I love you and miss you more than you could ever imagine !

Fall Way Back - February 21, 2021 at 06:54 PM

FB

“ Almost 2 months since you've been gone. The pain is still the same. It's not getting any easier. I miss my best friend. I sit in my room away from the rest of my house and just cry, asking GOD, why my dad ? What did I do that was so bad, that you had to take my best friend? My car fees like a shrine. All your pictures, your marine corp hat, marine corp tag on my car. Rosary beads hanging with the crematory cross that I had engraved and dedicated to you. I have dedications tattooed on my face and neck for you. Your great grand babies miss you! Raymond don't talk much anymore. He won't allow me to call him Raymond.. only because that was the name you gave him. I miss our late night talks when I would fight with my dumb petty behind husband. You would always talk me off the ledge of doing anything crazy ! I love you more than you could ever imagine and I miss you even more !!!! Til the day we meet again ! Make sure you greet me at those gates when it's my time to shine !

Fall Way Back - February 03, 2021 at 09:59 PM

FB

“ I just wanted to say that, here it is over a month gone and my heart still hurts. I would give anything to have you back with me. To hear you talk about all the good treasures you found at the auction. To watch you cooking your infamous pepper stew over rice, all the while making a mess. GOD has a really good crew up there. I LOVE YOU DAD and I MISS YOU MORE THAN YOU COULD EVER IMAGINE !! Til we meet again.

Fall Way Back - January 20, 2021 at 03:02 PM

AW

“ Just wanted to say Happy New Year's Eve. Not happy for me but happy your not suffering any longer. I'm still day by day with emotions. Had a melt down yesterday for a few off and on hours. This picture of you and Woody flashed in my face and I lost it. As always I love you my brother don't ever forget that.

Arleen Wood - December 31, 2020 at 08:08 AM

KS

“ Uncle Ricky,I know I'm not blood family but you have always been a Uncle to me. I have had so many memories with you and your family. I'll never forget the times we had and the laughs. You always would joke around and I never knew if you were joking or not and you would say to Brandy I guess she's the dumb friend!! Haha!! You always made me feel like I was family and even when we were out you would tell people these are my nieces. I will never forget you. This is so heartbreaking! You will be missed forever! Love you always! Watch over us all!

Kim Schilder - December 31, 2020 at 12:11 AM

DW

“ Hey uncle Ricky I know we didnt have many memories together but sense I do have some I will always cherish them forever I love you and I will miss you Deanna.

Deanna wood - December 28, 2020 at 06:39 PM

AW

“ I miss you Ricky. I love you so much

Arleen Wood - December 28, 2020 at 11:52 AM

AS

“ Uncle Ricky, you always cracked jokes and made us all smile. I'll never forget when you and Aunt Arleen came to Georgia to get me from that foster home and you got out of her car and i couldn't believe what i saw because you looked so much like my father (your Uncle Tommy). The whole ride back i kept looking over at you because when i looked at you all i saw was my father. The first year i was in NewJersey i spent a couple months over at your house and those times were some of the best i can remember. Everytime you would come over to Aunt Arleen's i would get so excited because i knew we all would joke around and have a good time. Everytime you left i would get a little emotional because it was like my father was gone all over again. I love you and ill miss you so much, Love Aaron

Aaron Stevens - December 24, 2020 at 03:14 PM

AW

“ My dearest brother I still can't believe it. You fought so long and hard. The only thing that's helping me hang in there is your not suffering anymore. Also your with mom like you wanted since 2001. Please always remember how much I love you and truly do and will those funny stories with you and those big hugs you always gave me. Remember he ain't heavy hes my brother. Always!!! Your loving sister

Arleen Wood - December 24, 2020 at 03:07 PM

DG

“ Uncle Ricky, You are the best example of an uncle that anyone could ask for. Thank you for always being the best any of us could have asked for. We will miss you, but we'll see you again one day.

Dylan Giffin - December 24, 2020 at 03:00 PM

BW

“ Uncle Ricky, You were one of the best uncles around. Between you and Uncle Joe, you both taught me many things through my life. You both were like a dad to me growing up. You are truly missed and will forever live on through the many memories and stories I will tell. Thank you for being true and so good hearted all the time to me. You were the life of any party and family gathering. May you rest easy...forever in my heart and in my memories. I love you to Heaven and back! Xoxo \u2764\u2764\u2764\u2764

Brandy wilson - December 23, 2020 at 07:08 PM

FB

“ Ricky N Elder was not only a great man with such a kind soul, he was my Dad. This man was my everything. We did everything together. Road trips. Trips to the auction on such hot days. I didn\u2019t care though because, he loved the auction and I loved spending every moment with him. I never skipped a beat on his doctor appointments\u2019 or visits to Jersey because, he wanted to see family. I have never felt so lost and empty. My Dad was my rock. I could talk to him about anything. He never judged me. He was very opinionated but, he never judged. He was the best! My Marine. My Dad. My best friend. I cry everyday hoping that the pain will subside but, truth be told, it won\u2019t. I pick my phone up to call him and then remember that he\u2019s no longer physically here with me. I wait on the dreams to start rolling in to be able to see him again. I miss you dad! You have no idea how much! I Love You. Love, Your Daughter, Heather.

Fall Way Back - December 22, 2020 at 07:04 PM