

Robert Bull

April 4, 1925 - May 7, 2017

Robert Dorsey Bull was born on April 4, 1925 in Mapsville, Virginia. Robert was the son of the late George Bull and Mattie (Rogers) Bull. He entered eternal rest on the seventh of May, in the year of our Lord 2017, at Beebe Health Care, Lewes, Delaware.

In addition to his parents, Robert was preceded in death by his loving wife Lottie (Reid) Bull; brothers, Charles Bull, Jesse Bull and Authur Bull; sisters, Florene Knox, Daisey Johnson and Rebecca Ames and one granddaughter Cynthia (Cindy) Bull.

Robert received his education in Accomack County Public Schools. He was a member of St. John 2nd Baptist Church in Millsboro, Delaware under the leadership of Rev. Annie Jane Custis.

In 1948, Robert moved his family to Millsboro, Delaware. He was employed by Townsends, Inc. in Millsboro, Delaware, as a truck driver. Later in 1964, he began working for the Department of Highway for the State of Delaware until his retirement. Robert enjoyed cutting his grass and watching his favorite television shows, and attending church with his church family.

Robert leaves to cherish many fond memories; two children, daughter Helen (Bull) Cephas, of Millsboro, Delaware; son Bobby L. Bull (Sara), of Dagsboro,

Delaware; five grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. It is sad when someone we love dies. I have recently loss two sisters in death. The hurt and pain of not being able to see them is really devastating. I took comfort in the bible promises at Acts 24:15 which assures us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, John 5:28&29. Please look forward to that time. Until then may your family be blessed.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
