“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus’ promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Strive to deal with your loss one day at a time. You do not know what benefit or encouragement a new day may bring. "Never be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have it own anxieties. Sufficient for each day is its own badness." Matthews 6:34 May the thought contained herein bring you some measure of comfort.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
