“ To the family of Robert Lee Hitch Jr.:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I will miss his smiling face at the local thrifts. He was quiet and friendly and a true gentleman. Please accept my sincere condolences at this time.

“ You have my sincere sympathy for your loss. I pray you will find comfort in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection; when he with the aid of Jehovah God's holy spirit, will raise all those who have fallen asleep in death(John 5:28,29)restoring them back to life with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed paradise earth(Luke 23:43). Just imagine when your sorrow now is turned into joy on seeing and being reunited with your love one again; what a glorious time that will be.-Psalms 37:29. Until then, may God continue to comfort and bless the Hitch Family.-Matthew 5:4
