Obituary

A Time to Be Born: Robert (Bobby) Nathaniel King, born on October 20, 1940 in Cambridge, MD to the late Linton King Sr. and Nellie King Sudler.

A Time to Serve:

Bobby attended schools in Cambridge, MD and graduated from Mace's Lane High School in the class of 1960. With an entrepreneurial spirit, Bobby was known to sell clothes, jewelry and food. He worked at Connelly Container and Cambridge Scientific however, he was self-employed for most of his adult life. A kind hearted soul, Bobby always went out of his way to help others. He enjoyed spending time with his family, sharing life lessons that have been passed down throughout the generations.

He was a deep thinker and a man of few words.

A Time to Die: On Saturday, February 18, 2017, God dispatched an angel to bring Bobby King to a new and larger life.

When asked what he wanted to pass along to the next generation, he said "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you"
