Occupation– Truck driver most of his life. Worked for Maryland Plastics, Caroline Poultry Farm, Pioneer Salt and Chemical Company of Philadelphia, PA.

Children– Carolyn D. Stanford and LaTasha Hopkins. Also his step-daughter, Tasha Hopkins and 5 grandchildren.

Donald was a life long resident of Philadelphia, PA, making his home on Diamond Street. In his last months, he lived at the Centennial Health Care Center on Girard Avenue.

Donald was preceded in death by his brothers, Milford Brown, Benjamin and Curtis Acree; sisters, Barbara Jackson and Helen Brittingham, and one brother-in-law, Claylon Wicks, Jr. Surviving are, Frances Corsey (Tom) of Preston, MD, George Brown (Kannika) of Silver Springs, MD, Delores Wicks and Betty Brown of Denton, MD, William Brown (Gloria Joyce) of Goldsboro, MD; Ronald Acree (Emily) of Middletown, DE; Phyllis A. Hubbard (Robert) of Easton, MD, and Shirley Acree of Middletown, DE; sisters-in-law, Hope Brown of Goldsboro, MD and Geraldine Wilson of Newtown, MD; one aunt, Lillian Egerson of New Castle, DE, and a very special dedicated friend, Russell Pearson of Philadelphia, PA. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Donald has always been a very independent person, having nice cars and a nice home. He always had plenty of good conversation for you. He fought a long battle, never giving up. God gently called him home, cradled him in his arms and he quietly went to sleep. We will miss you, but never forget you.
