

Robert Leon Sudler Sr.

November 16, 1942 - December 28, 2020

A Time to Be Born: Robert Leon Sudler, Sr., was born November 16, 1942, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Helen Dorethea Sudler and Charles Henry Sudler, Sr.

A Time to Love: Robert met, fell in love and married Eva Johnson, from which three children were born. After a few years of being a bachelor, he later married Karan Pritchard.

A Time to Live Robert attended the Kennard building in Centreville, Maryland. From there, he worked various jobs throughout his life including wood working, carpentry and landscaping, all of which he loved to do. Robert was the party animal of the family. There was always a Spades game, followed by many laughs and music. Robert was a father and grandfather figure to many around Centreville. He will forever be known as “pops”.

A Time to Rest: Robert entered his eternal life on December 28, 2020, at his home in Centreville, Maryland. He was preceded in death by his parents, as well as siblings, Ellen Maxwell, Albert Maxwell, Susie Handy, Veinna Kenney, Oscar Patterson, Jr., Ronald J. Patterson, Charles Henry Sudler, Jr., George Sudler, Ella Sellers and Portia Sudler; and granddaughter, Ikea Jackson.

A Time to Be Remembered: Precious memories will be cherished by his four children, Sheldon Lewis and his wife Lisa of Dover, DE, Robert Leon Sudler, Jr., Dameon Sudler and Octavia Sudler, all of Centreville, MD; one brother, Henderson Sudler, Sr. and his wife, Beverly of Centreville, MD; two sisters, Alma Seney and Fannie Mae Ackridge of Centreville, MD; 17 grandchildren, 19 great-grand children; one great-great grandchild; a special friend, Tina Briscoe; and a special niece, Ann Sudler.

Lovingly Submitted,
