Robert "Bob" Keith Warrington Jr. died at home Saturday, April 16, 2016. Bobby was a Marine and served in Iraq. He loved being a marine and was very proud to fight for his country. He was a loyal and lovable young man who will be missed by everyone he touched.

He is survived by his mother and stepfather, Sherie and David Kincaid of Rehoboth Beach; father Robert Keith Warrington Sr. of Lewes; grandfather Edgar Johnston of Jacksonville, Fla.; grandmother Ellen Kincaid of West Virginia; his brother and best friend Jeremy Warrington of Lewes; a sister, Jennie Kincaid of Rehoboth; and numerous aunts and cousins.

Bob's mother would like everyone to know that addiction is a disease that doesn't discriminate. Ask for help; you don't have to live or die addicted.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace (2 Cor. 1:3,4) while many fond memories of Robert warm your hearts.

“ We arrived home yesterday to learn of your very sad news. Bob was such a special guy who always had a smile for everyone. He was so proud to have been a Marine and was so enthusiastic about his present employment and new home he had been proudly enjoying. If there is anything we can do for you, please don't hesitate to ask us.
