In addition to spending time with her grandchildren, who were her life, she loved talking on the phone to family and friends and watching her favorite shows on T.V. Robin was a wonderful person, and she had many friends everywhere who loved her dearly.

Robin leaves fond memories with her daughter, Tiffany Guzman; her beloved grandkids, A’Miya “Mimi” Ramos, A’niya Ramos, Ti’Yana Bowman and Maurice”Pumpkin” Daniels, Jr; 4 siblings Andrew Hooks, Nancy White(Greg), Amos Hooks and Robert Hooks as wells as host of other loving family and friends.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ In this difficult time may the God of all comfort and his promises of the time when there will be no more death and we can again enjoy life with those we've lost bring you comfort. (Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28, 29).

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear Christ’s voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.
