

Roland Allen "Buddy" Jones

January 30, 1952 - January 20, 2018

Roland Allen Jones, affectionately called, "Buddy" by his friends and family, or "Uncle Lovey" by his many nieces and nephews, departed this life on Saturday, January 20, 2018, at Nanticoke Memorial Hospital, in Seaford, Delaware. He was born on January 30, 1952, to the late Mary Elizabeth Jones and William Clarence Gordy, of Seaford, Delaware.

Roland was educated in the Seaford School District. He was a roofer by profession and the "go to man" for any odd job needed. If it needed fixing, call Buddy.

Roland was preceded in death by three brothers, William Lee Jones, Charles Jones and Marshall Jones of Seaford, Delaware; two sisters, Rosa Jones of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Carla Walker of Seaford, Delaware.

Roland leaves to cherish sweet memories, his wife of 42 years, JoAnn Jones; two daughters, Camille Jones of Seaford, Delaware, and Demonica Jones of Greenwood, Delaware; two sons, Seneca Horsey of Laurel, Delaware, and Derrick Perkins of Tampa, Florida; three sisters, Darlene Robinson of Seaford, Delaware, Glenda Jones of Wilmington, Delaware and Della Reese of Seaford, Delaware; four grandchildren; three great grandchildren; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.
