

Ronald Wade Abrams

April 23, 1957 - December 18, 2017

Ronald Wade Abrams, son of Howard Abrams and Dorothy Bryant, born April 23, 1957, in Dover, Delaware, departed this life on December 18, 2017.

Ronald received his education in the Caesar Rodney School District. Ronald was a painter for many years. He also was a custodian for the Caesar Rodney School District.

Ronald was a well-known and everyone that came in contact with him were welcomed by a funny joke and they were left feeling like they had known him all of their lives. Ronald loved people! The more the merrier! He could be seen riding his bike up and down Star Hill, any time of the day or night. He had a very good spirit.

Ronald was preceded in death by his sisters, Melody Williams and Valeria Abrams, and stepfather, Robert Bryant.

Ronald's memory will forever be cherished by his children, Ronald Freeman, Roshawn, Valneeka, Tyron, and Ronald; siblings, Reynolds Abrams (Sherian), Faye Yelverton (Wilford); and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and friends.

Ronald has a great love for his family and will be missed by all who loved him.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

“ Condolences from Evelyn, To the family of Ronald . When someone you love dies. Nothing can fully prepare you for the loss of a loved one. But the Bible assures us at(Psalm 34:18) Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart. May the Bible bring hope and comfort to the family. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to us all, but the bible tells us at Revelation 21:4, that Almighty God is going to do away with death, tears, mourning and pain in the near future. It also tells us that the dead will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15) Please look forward to that time. Until then, may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bible's word at Philippians 4:7 which reads “and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus”. I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons

“My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
