

Ronald Bruce Pearson

June 9, 1949 - December 17, 2018

On Monday, June 9, 1949, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a baby boy was born to the late Marshall and Josephine Pearson. The baby was named Ronald B. Pearson. He departed this life on Monday, December 17, 2018.

Ronald received his education in the Philadelphia Catholic School System. He graduated from Saint Tommy Moore High School. Ronald extended his education by attending and graduating from Fisk University.

At a young age, Ronald accepted Christ. He was an altar boy and was active in church.

Ron, as he was affectionately called, was an entrepreneur, owning two ice-cream parlors in West Philadelphia. He was also a landlord of a boarding home. Ron gained employment with the State of Pennsylvania, working for the Department of Public Welfare (DPW). While there, Ron met and married Priscilla Chatman. They were married for 16 years. Ron left DPW and began to work for the City of Philadelphia, in the Department of Human Services (DHS). While there, he also took a position with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). He later left the IRS and began to work for Comcast while he continued to work for DHS. After a few years, Ron left Comcast, but remained at the City of Philadelphia DHS. Ron enjoyed working multiple jobs, so he became a tax preparer while maintaining his job with DHS. After many years with the City of Philadelphia, Ron decided to retire. As a retiree, Ron moved from Philadelphia to Camden, Delaware.

Ron enjoyed collecting neon signs, large train sets and fishing. He also looked forward to periodically sharing a cocktail with good friends. He was a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., and a big Patriots fan.

Ron's companions and best friends were his beautiful dogs, Salty and Pepper.

Ron fought a long battle with illness for years.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Evelyn.

Ron leaves to mourn his death, one devoted nephew, Keith Bradwell; great nephews, Ryan and Christopher; and a host of friends and neighbors.

Ron was loved and appreciated by all. He is sadly missed by everyone who knew him.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. We are near the time when God will take action to restore peace and everlasting life to obedient humankind. God promises: I will change their mourning into exultation, and I will comfort them and make them rejoice away from their grief. Jeremiah 31:13-17. The Bible, gives us true hope for the dead and consolation for the living. Ms Woodson
