

Ronald T. Roach

September 9, 1963 - November 17, 2018

Ronald “Ronnie” Thomas Roach was called home to our Lord on Saturday, November 17, 2018. Born September 9, 1963, in Dover, Delaware to Everson H. Roach, Sr. and Pearl E. Roach (nee Bratcher), Ronnie, or Uncle Ronnie as he was affectionately known, was an avid wrestler and proud Caesar Rodney graduate. He went on to excel in martial arts, motocross sports, automotive body and collision repair and general contracting.

As the youngest of ten (10) siblings, Ronnie was spoiled, loved and cherished by all. He knew no stranger and his enduring patience was present as he taught so many to ride a bike, train a new puppy or simply listen as people would vent. He was quick to break out in a dance move or bust out in a song and his Michael Jackson impression was second to none. Ronnie was a proud Eagles fan and did not hesitate to let everyone know, even before Philadelphia became the NFL champions. Simply put, he taught us to enjoy each day, take nothing for granted, treat everyone with kindness and root for the underdog.

Ronnie was preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Pearl L. Douglas. He leaves to cherish his memory his faithful companion, who was more like a son than a dog, Max; his siblings, Evelyn Clayton (Robert) of Decatur, GA, Doris Preston (Charles) of Dover, DE, widower of Pearl, Frederick Douglas, Sr., of Dover, DE, Carrie Gunter (Rodney) of Covington, GA, Everson Roach,

Jr. of Dover, DE, Warner Roach, Sr. (Stephanie Hazel) of Lima, OH, Charles Roach (Rosetta) of Magnolia, DE, Marian Favors of Felton, DE and Joyce Roach (Kenneth) of Petersburg, VA, and an extensive host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ It is with an incredibly heavy heart that I write this letter of condolence. As a kid, Ronnie had such an influence on me. I first met him at the Dover Schwinn bicycle shop, and he quickly became like a big brother to me. To say I wanted to be like him would be an understatement. I admired his confidence, his charisma and his ability to connect with people. I will never forget that infectious smile and that laugh. Today, my world is a little less bright. Sincerely,
Albert S. White

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God \"will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\"
