

Ronald Lee "Ronnie" Hitchens

October 5, 1955 - May 7, 2018

Ronald Lee Hitchens , “Tabu”, was born October 5, 1955, to the late Charles and Doretta Adkins in Milford, Delaware. Ronnie departed this life on Monday, May 7, 2018, at Beebe Medical Center in Lewes, Delaware. Ronnie started his education journey at Millsboro Elementary School and graduated from Indian River High School in 1975. After graduation, he joined the United States Army for a short time.

Following his honorable discharge from the Army, Ronnie started working for Showell Farms as a chicken catcher. He continued to catch chickens most of his adult life and enjoyed doing it. To hear him tell it, he was one of the best chicken catchers around. Ronnie also started a side hobby as DJ Mix Master “T”. Ronnie also did odd jobs like, cleaning cars and trucks and yard work, until his health limited him. Anyone that ever met Ronnie, knew he was also a talker! He loved talking about his experiences in life. Most people couldn’t get a word in edgewise when he was around. Whatever the subject was, he could tell you something about it.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
