

Ronnie Lee Hovington

August 20, 1980 - April 28, 2019

Ronnie Lee Hovington, Jr., 38, was born on August 20, 1980, to Ronnie and Jane Hovington. He departed this life on April 28, 2019, at Bayhealth Hospital, Kent Campus.

Ronnie was a 1998 graduate of Sussex Central High School. He went on to further his education at Delaware State University, majoring in Art Education. While at DSU, he was a part of the Hornets football team.

Ronnie was employed by Lake Forest School District as a Paraprofessional. Ronnie also coached football and track. Prior to his employment at Lake Forest, he was employed by the Murphy School in Dover, Delaware. He was an avid sports fan and he often volunteered to assist with various youth programs. He was an awesome mentor to many students. Ronnie was a true Dallas Cowboys fan. He represented the blue and silver with pride. One of his greatest memories was attending a Dallas Cowboys game with his son Juwan last year, and they had a blast. He loved to send text messages to the family when the Cowboys won, but when they didn't do so well, you wouldn't hear a peep from him.

Ronnie was a fun loving, well mannered, outgoing young man with an infectious smile. He was always willing to lend a hand to everyone he came in contact with. Ronnie had a heart of gold. Oftentimes, Ronnie would unselfishly forego his needs to help or provide for others. If he couldn't help you, he would find another way or someone that could help. He loved spending time with his children and his family. He also enjoyed helping in the BBQ pit for the Richard Allen School, playing spades, the beach, family vacations, trips with the Millers' and just making people laugh. Ronnie always had a smile on his face, even while he was crying on the inside. Ronnie had such a sense of humor, he was always the one that kept the family laughing.

Ronnie received the Lord at a young age. He loved the Lord. He would send daily "Food for Thought" scriptures to his family and friends. He touched many lives with those scriptures. People looked forward to receiving them, as it was a daily encouragement. In March, Ronnie spoke at his church on the topic of faith. He delivered a powerful message. Ronnie often spoke about the goodness of the Lord and how he was truly blessed.

Ronnie was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Knowles and Mabel Hovington and maternal grandmother, Marion Tarboro.

Ronnie leaves to cherish his memories, his parents, Ronnie and Jane Hovington of Georgetown; his children Juwan Savage, Xavier Dickerson, O'Rion Dickerson, Alana Wilkerson, Ziahn Young, Phoenix Dickerson and Ameer Wilkerson-Hovington; one grandfather, Roy Tarboro; one sister, Haronda Sheppard (Nathan) of Millsboro; two brothers, Gerald Miller (Anita) of Dover and Knowles Hovington of Dover; one niece, eleven nephews, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

“ To the family,My sincere condolences in the passing of Coach Ronnie. Please find comfort in the words of Revelation 21:4, "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.\u201d

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God\u2019s intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God\u2019s word.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201c

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Times like this are so difficult to deal with as we mourn those we love. May you find some comfort in the promises Almighty God gives us in His Word, the Bible (Hebrews 4:12). One outstanding promise He gives is that one day his only-begotten son, Jesus Christ has been given the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus showed he could and would do this when on earth he raised a dear friend from death (John 11:43, 44). Death is an enemy even to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He is going to have death removed forever along with other things that cause mankind pain and suffering (Revelation 21:3, 4). Keep that real hope alive and it will strengthen you in the days ahead! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I wanted to send our true condolence to your family. Coach Hovington was a true mentor to my son Nicholas and gave him the courage to hold his high when others told him not to. Coach would always give my son the strength and courage during those hot summer days and mentored my son to be the man he is today. Coach Hovington will be missed immensely and the world will not be the same.
