“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”?—Rom. 12:15.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ It's really hard for me believe Ros is gone. She was truly my friend. We go back to the 7th grade when we sat next to each other in Mr. White's homeroom class. We instantly bonded and that bond has lasted up until the day she closed her eyes forever. I know death is an intrinsic part of life and we must continue on, but it's hard when you know you can't pick up the phone and hear that voice ever again. I will always remember the beautiful life Ros lived and keep alive the memories I have in my heart. She was so special to all of us and we all will miss her sense of humor, her laughter, and smile. I'll miss the special times we shared, our trips and shopping sprees and all of life's ups and downs we shared. But I take comfort in knowing that we will see each other again...for this is the hope we have in God...being re-united in the Lord. Love ya, girl!! Rest in peace.

“ I can here her words "ole just go on" as I would try to mess with her. Still remember when she found out Larry got a new bike from in the lunch line. Thanks for all the great memories and always making me feel welcome in your house. Heaven got another angel!

“ To the Hanson, please accept my condolences at this time. The giving of life in the formation of man was a gift. A gift that is free and we rejoice every time we produce this wonderful present, the gift of life. Hope of life is the gift for all in the memorial tombs. He say " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out." John5:28,29. The gift of life and hope.

“ Rosalind was my friend, my work colleague, and sometimes a mother when I needed one. I will miss her greatly as I know Larry and her family will always. Love you Ros.

“ Grief can be hard, may your family find strength in God promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.
