

Rosalyn Semper

December 21, 1945 - May 2, 2018

Rosalyn Delores Semper, 72, died May 2, 2018, at her residence. She was born December 21, 1945, in New York City, the daughter of Warren and Florence (Sherman) Collins.

Rosalyn graduated from Jane Adams High School, Class of 1963. Following graduation, she entered into her career of nursing, and continued until her retirement in 2003. She was passionate about her career and taking care of others, which she has shown throughout her long lived life. In 1968, she married the love of her life, Jerry Semper, and they enjoyed each other for 50 Golden Years. During their marriage, they got to travel to various places, and enjoy life together as one.

Rosalyn loved to travel and spend time with her family, as family was very important to her. She was the one many people called on when they had a medical question, and she would answer to the best of her ability. She was an individual that you could confide in and talk to no matter the situation. Rosalyn was one that always helped others in their time of need.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by a brother, Warren, and a sister, Muriel. Surviving, in addition to her husband, Jerry, are her son, Jerry Semper Jr., and his wife, Elizabeth of Silver Spring, MD; daughters, Jaimi Leigh Jones and her husband, Tykim of Temple Hills, MD and Elaysha Semper; four grandchildren, Micah Jones, Nathanael Semper, Zachary Semper and Samuel Semper; three sisters, Francene Joseph and her husband Herbie Joseph of Seaford; Christine Collins of Seaford and Eleanore Collins of Seaford; and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard, may your family find strength in God's promise at (Isaiah 25: 8) that soon “he will swallow up death forever”. You have my deepest sympathy.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
