“ Aunt Rosie n family we love you. A Poem Author Unknown: Fallen Limb
A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, Grieve nor for me. Remember the best times, the laughter n the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage n I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again. ❤️ From The Collins Family children of Russell J. Collins Sr.

“ Rosie, Today I struggle to find words to show my love and how much I will miss you. I am comforted knowing that you are with God and with so many that we love. Rosie, God blessed you with the gift of poetry; today, I share these words as a tribute to you. Your baby sister, Maxine

God's Garden
By Melissa Shreve

*God looked around his garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon the Earth and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
With the help of his angels they flew you to your heavenly place*

*Gods garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best
He knew you were suffering, he knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again*

*He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb
He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine"
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.*
