

Rosemary Maxberry

December 20, 1940 - January 27, 2013

Rosemary Maxberry, age 71, departed this life to be with Jesus on January 27, 2013 at Milford Memorial Hospital of medical complications.

Rosemary blessed us with her presence in Wilson, North Carolina on December 20, 1940. She was born to the late “Ozzie” Elizabeth Royster-Parker (mother) and Otis Plate (father).

Although Rosemary was small in stature, she was still a force to be reckoned with. She was a fighter and knew how to stand her ground against any and all odds. This was evident during her medical complications, the strength and fight she had within to push through any obstacle in her path. She didn't tolerant foolishness from anyone and knew how to get you together if it was needed. However, she also had such a loving, caring-free and spontaneous personality that captivated you and made you want to be around her. She knew how to make you smile and feel loved and all that knew her loved her.

“I'm a small piece of leather, but I'm well put together” (the words of Rosemary Maxberry).

She is survived by four children, Lawanda Earl Lucas, Jacquelyn Ann Wills, William Ralph McCoy and Alphonzo Earl McCoy; two sons-in-law, Nathaniel V. Wills and Albert John; five sisters, Lewis Green of Dover, DE, Marva Jean

Smith of Wilson, North Carolina, Dorothy Abraham of Texas, Katherine Ann Best of Wilmington, DE and Juanita Charlene Taylor of Dover, DE.; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. She is now joined with her siblings who pasted before her: Algiers Augustus Royster of Chester, Pennsylvania, Lloyd Noland Parker of Dover, DE and Patricia Ann Royster of Wilson, North Carolina. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Robert David Maxberry.

“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).*
