“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I remember Roy as being my best friend all the way back in Buckingham Elementary. He was a friend throughout the years even as we grew up and moved on in life. I'll always have fond memories of my friend and cousin.
My condolences, love and blessings go out to his family. You will be missed brother.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. I too have recently loss two sisters in death. It's sad to lose someone you love, especially ones you were raised up with all your life. The bible gave me comfort and it can help your family too in this most difficult time. Acts 24:15, tells us that the dead will be resurrected, also Revelation 21:4 tells us that in the near future Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain. Please look forward to that time, and until then, may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ I was very saddened to hear of a great friend (Roy) passing. I hadn't seen Roy since we graduated high school but was happy to connect with him through social media where we exchanged some old school memories and a lot of "lol's" Roy was a great friend, classmate and I'm certain an wonderful husband and father. To his entire family my condolences to you all and may God bless each and everyone of you with peace, comfort and understanding. It's very difficult when we lose a wonderful loved one from our lives so early in life (I lost my wife of 20yrs at her early age of 40 yrs old ten yrs ago) and it's difficult but prayer and God's blessings he gave me comfort and peace and we will see our loved ones again. They're absence is temporarily because our next life is everlasting. May God bless the entire family.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
